A great picture was that which showed "Napoleon" the man of destiny. It left a desire for more pictures that would show other events in the life of the "Little Corporal" and the Empire management has one to show tonight, one that will tell of his marriage and divorce and the departure of Josephine for Malmaison. It is a great series. There are other pictures on the program which will bring weeps of laughter to the eyes of the stoics. Take, for instance, "Hard to Beat," -It has a lot of stuff which might easily be taken for local color. You will for-$236,069.34 with assets of $59 on ex. all day if you are the pictures pire tonight and see the pictures which tell of fear that Bridget has for rats. The show is the best there
